Verse 2:

Keep on trucking, mama, truckin' all my blues away
Keep on trucking, mama, truckin' all my blues away
You can do what you do, say what you say
Comes down to doin' it there's only one way!
Keep on trucking, mama, truckin' all my blues away

Verse 3:

Hey, hey, baby, your Southern can is mine
Hey, hey, sugar, your Southern can is mine
It's ashes to ashes and dust to dust
If you leave it in the rain you know it's gonna rust
So bring it on down to my house, baby,
Th'ain't nobody home but me

Verse 4:

Why do you do me like you do me, Mama,
When you shouldn't do me like you do?
How come you do me like you do me, Mama,
When you shouldn't do me like you do?
I got one-two-three-four-five-six reasons
If you doublecross me it's an act of treason

Take it slow and easy, if you want to get along with me

Verse 5:

Hey, hey, baby, you know you got the best of me

Well hey, hey, darlin', you know you got the best of me

Well, you can do what you do and you can say what you say

But keep on truckin' my blues away

Hey, hey, baby, you know you got the best of me
